Journals Featuring Chemical Science and Pharmaceutical Research

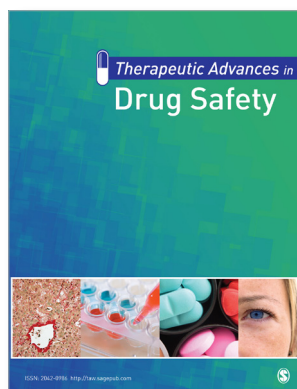

Journal of Chemical Research

Impact Factor:0.593

Indexed In: SCIE, SCOPUS, EBSCO, ProQuest

The Journal of Chemical Research (JCR) is a monthly journal which has a broad international authorship and publishes research papers and reviews in all branches of experimental chemistry. Established in 1977 as a joint venture by the British, French and German chemical societies it maintains the high standards set by the founding societies. Each paper is independently peer reviewed and only carefully evaluated contributions are accepted.
